BUREL MOUNTAIN ORIGINALS was born with the aim of revitalizing the value of the traditional wealth of the Mountain, so that they're not forgotten but reinvented in a dynamic, innovative way to advance an art, a tradition and a craft.

Our journey began in Manteigas, Serra da Estrela mountain range village, in Portugal, a region of the country conscious of wool the Burel fabric , to bring modern design with a contemporary trait to all the cosmopolitan centers of the world.

In this next exhibition, Burel Mountain Originals presents a new collection of throws, blankets and cushions. It also features a new wall covered with a new 3D woolen stitch to showcase the avant garde in the trend of wall coverings and furnishing upholstery.

With new patterns and new colors created exclusively by the brand, Burel comes with a new collection colored in novelties, home decor objects and more modern lines still woven by the ancestral knowledge as it always did.

A significant element in the success of the BYFLY collection, where décor is culture, original creativity and tradition, is its capacity to detect and adapt to the fast-moving trends, and the ability to constantly create new items to better serve the clients' needs.

Clay is brought under the limelight and back to life in new forms and combinations as the result of research, expertise, aesthetics, and experimentation. All in all, this new brand combines past and present, offers tactile stories in the form of ceramic and copper work, in which the BYFLY shapes inspire symbolic, subtle universes, filled with seduction, where clay is carefully crafted or is interwoven into innovative lines.

Laboratório d'Estórias[®]

The art of telling stories in the shape of objects

Born in 2013, Laboratório d'Estórias is an experimental design space that seeks to recover ancestral techniques of manufacture and reinterpret icons of Portuguese popular culture. In Laboratório d'Estórias, ceramics, illustration and writing come together to create unique and contemporary pieces, fruit of a network that brings together various knowledges and generations.

In each one of our pieces there are parts of history to be discovered and a new story to tell, which begins to be unveiled in the packaging. Buying a piece of Laboratório d'Estórias is, therefore, much more than buying a piece of decoration. Is to buy a story in the shape of an object. A piece that, for all that it represents, becomes an artifact of desire.

MARIAS

PAPERDOLLS

Is a contemporary concept of the feminine, materializing in paper dolls its essence. Recycling newspapers and magazines, Claudia Nair expresses messages in her creations, reinvent traditions, tells us stories. Marias PaperDolls are born from the passionate, creative, profound and dreamy vision of this artist, personifying the feminine in unique paper dolls, with identity and soul.

In the next "Maison et Object" exposition, Claudia Nair and Victor Escaleira will bring together two different materials in their individual work, with the same origin - the trees: the fragile paper and the strong wood, incorporating the Portuguese essence.
